Dog. Two Imported Stounds, Divide the Reners-Southern Rhymne Shows Up Well. A greyhound coursing match, with lusty jack as the quarry, furnished fine spot about 250 enthusiasts on the middle field of the Coney Island Jockey Club race track at Sheeps head Bay yesterday. The event was the first annual Autumn Stakes run off by the American National Graybound Coursing Club, which was erganized in this city by the greybound fanciers during the last Fobruary bench show of the Westminister Kennel Club. In 1889 an attempt hold a coursing meeting on the Hempstead Plains, in which many of the leading members of the hunt clubs were interested, was stopped by outside influences, but resterday's coursing meeting was conducted without a check and 1 a most sportsmanlike manner.

The jack rabbits were brought on from the West for the meeting, and were in vigorous health and as fleet as the wind. The dogs were a high-class lot. Those entered by Eastern bench show winner both in England and this country, and Grace Briant, a winner at the recent bench show at Brooklyn. The coursing soon settled itself into a race between bench show form and field form. The Western greyands, Coralie and Crow Dog, both owned by R. L. Lee, were the only survivors in the heat, and the stakes, amounting 5400, were divided. Both were bred in the ken-bel of the late Col. North, in England. Their sire is Babazoun. The first-named is from Buenritero, the second from Bonnie Belle. In 1896 Ceralle divided the Produce Stakes with Magician at Great Bend, Kan., and Crow Dog ran third at the Alicar Coursing Club's meet-ing at Colorado Springs. The entries and draw-lars were:

Mrs. Meard Wine the Women's Match on the misty morning, followed by a sunny and pleasant afternoon, were the weather conditions yesterday for the women's competition at the Dyker Meadow Golf Club. The contest was the final one for the cup presented by E. L. Kalbfleisch between the winners of the four preliminary contests held during November. Like the earlier competitions, it was an eighteen-hole medal play handleap. The winter course, which is somewhat shorter than the regular course, was played on for the first time this season. Despite this December suggestion the women were as gay in red or green golfing waists as though it was a midsummer match.

The best gross score, 127, was made by Mrs. Kalpfleisch. While not a long driver, she played the tee shots in good form. Her iron plays were also well executed. Mrs. Kalbfleisch was the only competitor who did not need double figures for at least two holes. Mrs. William Beard who won the cup on her handleap, made the gross card of 134. A short drive, badly punished by the dry pond, made the first hole cost her Otherwise, although a stroke was wasted at the fifth hole in putting, she made quite an even card. Mrs. Putnam made the home hole in six, and, only for a short put that hung on the rim, she would have equalled the hogic on that green. Both Miss Fowler and Mrs. Kalbfleisch made the seventh hole in six, a creditable performance. The summary:

Lakewood will hold a professional tournament on Jan. 1. There will be four or more money prizes, and the contest will be at thirty-six holes, medal play. Four professionals are located at Lakewood: Willie Anderson, the runner-up in the open championship; Horace Rawlins, champion of 1895: Willie Norton, and Harry Rawlins. With the outside players available there should be no lack of entries. It will be the first competition for professionals held near this city since 1896, and the talent are all eager to receive a chance at each other. LAKEWOOD, Dec. 7 .- The fifth match in the open handleap series for the Claffin Cup was played on the links of the Ocean County Hun and Country Club to-day, and was productive of fine play, all net scores being below the bundred mark. The weather was beautiful and the sport much enjoyed. The winning oard was brought in by C. Tiffany Richardson, who is coming to be a formidable factor in these oup competitions. Baproseviatives of Cornell, Vale, and Har vard Will Meet To-Day.

ITHAUA, Dec. 7 .- F. D. Colson, captain of the Cornell '98 'varsity crew, left Ithaca to-night for Albany, where he will meet and confer with Whitney of Yale and Goodrich of Harvard to morrow relative to Yale's invitation to row at New London next June, or enter the Yale-Har vard race if Hervard is willing.

The members of the athletic council are silent as to the instructions carried by Capt. Col. son, but inasmuch as he is a member of the council and was this morning closeted in secret session with prominent members of that body, it is presumed that he is fully empowered to the presument in the there is that body it is presumed that he is fully empowered to present Cornell's ultimatum.

New Haven, Dec. 7.—Capt. Payne Whitney of the Yate crew will leave here to morrow morning for Albany, where he will represent Yale to morrow evening in the conference with Cornel. It is believed that Harvard will have a representative present and that the question of a Yale Cornell race for next season will be settled. The conference is really called at Cornell's request.

Yale's position is unaftered. She will admit Cornell into the Yale-Harvard race or will row a separate race with her on the Thames. What Cornell a position is an other states to Yale, the is believed to have some union objections to the New Lousdon course which Yale's new soundings, prepared after a Government survey, will remove to morrow.

Constable. The club will hold its annual Christmas festival on Dec. 20. Secretary Mastin of the New York Boyal Arcanum Bowling League announced yeaterday that the Benev-olent Council team had withdrawn from the tourna-ment. In order to allow several second teams of other councils to play off for the vacancy to night, the regular scheduled games between the Polaris Council, Knickerbooker Council, and Irving Council have been postponed until next March.

Jerome Keogh, the pool champion, has aranged for an international match with John Roberts, the English billiard and pool cham nion. He will be the second American to play the English champion, the first being Alfredo De Oro, the Cuban, who played Roberts in this city in 1893, a mixed match at the English and American game. De Oro was pool champion until he was prostrated by serious sickness eight months ago and was compelled to go to hospital. At this time be was matched to play Herman Stewart of Binghamton for the championship emblem, and forfeited it to Stewart after the latter biad agreed to await his recovery. Grant Eby subsequently won the emblem from Stewart, and Eby was defeated by Keogh. The latter still holds the trophy, having recently defeated William Clearwater in a match game at Scranton. Clearwater was the original winner of the emblem in the tournament held at Syracuse to establish the championship. De Oro was second and Keogh third in the tourney. pospital. At this time he was matched to play

WOULD OUST DR. ROBINSON

SENSION OF THE NEW YORK PRES-BYTERIAN CHERCH HOSTILE. hurch Owes Dim Sc. 500, for Which He Man

Taken Judgment-We's Called "An Obstruction"-Re Gave the beaton a Talking to When a Call to Br. Paxton was Mosted Of the trouble in the New York Presbyterian Church, as an outgrowth of which the Rev. Dr. John R. Paxton was led, through misunderstanding, to make himself at home in the pulpit there on Sunday last, to the annoyance of the paster, the Rev. Dr. Charles S. Robinson, who objected publicly, Col. Killaen Van Rensselaer, the active agent of the refractory session of the church, said yesterday: "Dr. Robinson is the pastor of the New York Presbyterian Church officially, but not in the hearts of the congregation. He is an obstruc tion. I asked him at the annual congregational meeting last night why he didn't get out. The facts are that Dr. Robinson some little time ago practically threw up the pastorate. He said that he wasn't going to preach any more, for the present, certainly. We took him at his word, although he didn't formally resign, and the session at a meeting at which he wes present and over which he pre sided, appointed a committee on supply, of which I was one, to provide for filling the pulpit, Dr. Robinson having stated that theretofore he had paid for the pulpit supply, whenever he was absent, out of his own pocket. "As an old friend and comrade of Dr. Paxton in the war, I wrote him at his home in East Hampton, L. L., telling him something of the circumstances and asking him if he would accept the pastorate of the New York church if the way was made clear. His reply was: My old friend, I'll do anything I can to help you. The Committee on Supply then engaged Dr. Paxton to preach for us until Jan. 1, after which we thought matters might shape themselves for further developments. The fact is that the church owes Dr. Robinson, approximately, $8,500, and he practically said he wasn't going to preach any more until this debt was paid. For this $6,500 he has taken and holds a judgment against the church, and i seems as though he said he wouldn't resign until it was paid. We have said to him. If we pay you, will you get out? But he remains pastor of the church, officially, but, as I said, not in the hearts of the people. I'm afraid that Dr. Paxton will decline to breach at the church again, owing to the con-Hampton, L. L. telling him something of the people. I'm afraid that Dr. Paxton will decline to preach at the church again, owing to the controversy that has been raised.

Dr. Hobinson, when reporters called on him yesterday, declared that the newspaper accounts of the trouble in the church were absolutely erroneous. He denled in toto having said what he did say to The Sun reporter on Monday, which was published in THE Sun yesterday. He had forgotten. He was correctly quoted. He declined to specify yesterday in what respects he wished the statement amended, unless it was as to his use of the word "devil" in the phrase "play the devil." amended, unless it was as to his use of the word "devil" in the phrase "play the devil." "Devil! devil! devil!" said he. "It's villainous that I should be published as talking so!" Dr. Robinson said several things on Monday that THE SUN did not print yesterday. This, for instance.

Dr. Robinson said several things on Monday that The Sun did not print yesterday. This, for instance:

"Here's what I said to the session after their illegal meeting, held in my absence, when the law says that the pastor shall preside at all meetings of the session held to consider relations with the pastor and Presbytery. I said to them: 'You can call Dr. John R. Paxton if you want to, It's easily done, Just promise him $5,000 a year. You needn't pay it. It's wrong, to be sure, but you needn't do it. You haven't paid me! Or you can promise him $2,000 a year, payable in monthly installments of $186 2.3. and you needn't pay that. To be sure it's immoral, as Dr. Hall says; It's wicked, but you haven't pad me. Dr. Trûax, Judge Truax's brother, says I'm a fool to have this going on. But you can call Dr. Paxton and promise him this salary and keep him along year after year without li—if Dr. Paxton is a fool, as Dr. Truax says I am a fool, and there are doubtless other fools. Or you can do better yet, perhaps. You can call him and promise him the salary and then at the end of three years you can have a meeting and abrogate the contract, declare that the contract entered into with the Rev. Dr. Paxton on the specified date three years before is null and void and of no effect. Or you might, if the law hadn't been made to cover the case. And if you can do this long enough it's really the best because the cheapest way to get along—if there are other fools."

Continuing his recital of what he said to the session, Dr. Robinson said that he reminded them that the mere fact that the church had one pastor in to way hampered them if they desired to call another pastor. He recalled to their minds, he said, that old Dr. Hastings had not retired as pastor of the West Church when Dr. Paxton was called there. "Dr. Paxton had been called on probation," he said, "and after a time he naturally wanted to have thing's settled. It was an important occasion. There were

Paxton was called there. "Dr. Paxton had been called on probation," he said, "and after a time he naturally wanted to have things settled. It was an important occasion. There were pretty big men there—Gen. Grant, Russoll Sage, Flagler, the oli man, &c. It takes a pretty big ring for such a big bull, and the fact is that Dr. Paxton was fairly installed and settled there before Dr. Hastings was retired."

EMBARGO ON CAKE WALKS. Jersey City's Chief of Police Says They Must

He Stopped. Chief of Police Murphy of Jersey City has issued instructions to the Captains of various precincts to suppress cake walks.

"The cake walk," said the Chief yesterday, has become an attraction this season for the balls and receptions of mythical associations organized for the occasion, usually by the lessee organized for the occasion, usually by the lesses of the hall and the man who has leased the bar privileges for the season. The walk is always deferred until the night is far advanced to detain the crowd and increase the profits of the bar. Then it creates excitement and much noise. The noise deprives people who, unfortunately, live near the dance halls of sleep, and numerous complaints have been made to the police. One landlord said that he had lost several tenants who could not tolerate the nuisance."

nnisance."
The Captains were instructed to notify the owners and lessees of dance halls that cake walks must not be permitted hereafter. WORK OF AN EXPLODING BOILER.

The Fireman Killed, One Man Scalded Fatally NORFOLK, Va., Dec. 7 .- The boiler in the Cit zens' Electric Light and Power Company's lower house at Portsmouth exploded this after oon, instantly killing Fireman Ben Dennis, colored, and fatally scalding his brother, Joe Smith. The boiler was blown a hundred yards across a pile of cord wood twenty feet high and bricks were driven through the windows and roofs of near-by houses.

To Incorporate the Archdeacoury.

At the annual meeting of the Archdeaconry of New York, held at Grace Church yesterday, the question of incorporating the archdeaconry was favorably considered and it was decided to take steps to that end. Bishop Potter explained that steps to that end. Bishop Potter explained that the main reason for the proposed incorporation was to enable the archdeaconry to hold real estate and receive gifts. At the election of officers Charles P. Bull, the Secretary, and James Pott, the Treasurer, were reflected. Nine trustees were elected as follows: The Rev. C. C. Tiffany, D. D., Arendeacon, exofficio; the Rev. D. H. Greer, D. D.; the Rev. J. W. Brown, D. D.; the Rev. W. H. Vibbert, D. D.; the Rev. J. Lewis Parks, D. D.; George Coppel, George B. Bonney, Andrew C. Zabriskie and C. A. Clark, Policeman Herman W. Gerow, who was arrested Monday night on a warrant sworn out by Sergeant Petty of the East 104th street station, charging him with perjury, was arraigned in Centre Street Court yesterday before Magistrate Meade. Magistrate Meade held him in $1.000 ball for examination on Friday. Ball was furnished.

VACHTING. final Trial of the Rilide-A Big Bonus for Ex-

The wonderful steam yacht Ellide made her final trial over the measured mile off Irvington-on-Hudson restorday afternoon, and was formally accepted by E. Burgess Warren, who paid Designer Mosher $6,000 in excess of the contracted price for speed beyond thirty miles an hour. Phenomenal speed was not a feature of the final trial, owing principally to the unfavorable weather conditions for an extreme test. The basis upon which the bonus was paid was

The basis upon which the bonus was paid was computed from data obtained in the various runs since May 1, in one of which she established a record of nearly forty miles an hour. The judges in the various tests of appeal have included Naval Constructor Bowles, Ensign Osborn, and other officers of the United States Navy; Col. Greens, Seventy-first Regiment of New York, Francis P. Magoun and Harrison B. Moore, N. Y. Y. C. Warren will, during the remainder of the season, place the yacht and crew at the disposal of the Navy Department, to be used as a basis of calculations for fast torpedo boats. Afterward she will be hauled out, and early in the spring will be taken to Lake George, where her owner has a summer home. She will be used for a lishing boat, for which purpose the craft was originally constructed.

After the report of the council, of which the change of name, the affiliation with the North American Yacht R cing Union, and the blanket entry form were the principal features, the question of revision of rules was taken up, and the discussion was not finished on the racing and measurement rules until long after 11 o'clock, although the general rules were adopted without argument. In the new name adopted the word "association" was substituted for "union."

"union."
The 30-footers will hereafter be measured with crews on board, the same as the smaller classes, and the cabin and open cats will hereafter race in the same class. A motion to eliminate all time allowance in the various classes was referred back to the co neil after two the votes. It will be brought up again at the March meeting. Private signals were abolished and the blanket system of entries was adopted after some discussion.

Douglaston V. C. Election. The annual meeting of the Douglaston Yacht Club, fallowed by the usual banquet, was held last night at the arena. After the routine business the following regular nominations for the various offices for the season of 1898 were unanimously elected:
Commodore, Clar M. Greene; Vice-Commodore, F. Parsons; Rear Commodore, W. H. Johns: Secretary, George H. Petit, Treasurer, John G. Bert; Measurer, David Crispin; Board of Governors, Thomas L. Hamilton, Joseph R. Grismer, Louis Harway, David Crispin, and Charles K. Sayer.

NEWBURG, Dec. 7 .- The coldness of the weather and the appearance of snow during the past few days has stirred the ice yachtsmen of the Orange Lake Ice Yachting Club to renewed activity, and they are busily engaged in getting their flyers ready for the coming season's spor on Orange Lake. There is no ice to speak of on Orange Lake. There is no ice to speak of, spill the expectations of the members of the club are that they will enjoy much more sport than they did last winter. Some new boats have been built, and the old ones are being burnished up for service. George E. Trimble, who has for some years taken part in all of the races in which his yacht Take Care has been classed, is having a new boat built at Poughkeepsle, which is expected to be very fast. Commodore H. C. Higginson has made some alterations and improvements in the Windward, and these are intended to greatly increase her speed. Vice-Commodore Kidd's Snowdrift, which last winter captured nearly all the trophies of the club. ter captured nearly all the trophies of the club, has been placed in good condition and is expected to keep up her fast sailing qualities. William A. Thompson of Washington Heights has had a new boas built by Capt. Stewart. Thompson is also cetting his craft in shape for the winter's races on the lake. Besides these the Fiving Jib, owned by Frank G. Wood; the lee Queen, owned by H. S. The races for the season will be for the Challenge Cup of 1888, the Higginson Cup for third-class boats, the champlon pennant offered by Vice-Commodore Kidd, the gold watch presented by J. Abner Harper, and several other special prizes that will be named when the season opens. Chamberlin Elected Vale's Football Captain. NEW HAVEN, Dec. 7 .- Yale's football team next year will be led by Burr Clark Chamberlin, a post-graduate of the Sheffleld Scientific School. To night he was elected captain, as was predicted in THE SUN this morning. Twelve votes were cast, the players in the Harvard and Princeton games receiving the privilege of a ballot aplece. They were Rodgers, Benjamin, Hail, Hazen, Chamberlin, Brown, Cadwalader, Charwick, De Saulies, Indley, Corwin, and MeRide. A single ballot was necessary to name Chamberlin, who was warmly cheered. His selection is unanimously approved on the college campus. Chamberlin plays right tackle, although he is a corking end and full back. He is 20 years old, weighs 180 pounds, and stands 5 feet 10 inches tail. He lives at Daiton, Mass., and prepared for Yale at Andover Academy. If De Saulies succeeds in getting his scholarship above par by next spring he will be Yale's baseball captain. School. To night he was elected captain, as was to acknowledge their new grandmother. Mrs. Grebch is a person of strong will, and her subsequent netions showed her determination to adhere to her decision.

When the newly married couple returned to Hollis Mrs. Miller wanted to live in the Miller mansion, not only because it is the finest house in the place, but because she felt that it was her rightful home. Her husband agreed, of course, Mrs. Grebch was notified, but she refused point blank to have her stepmother in the house with her. Mr. Miller then purchased a handsome house, and with the deed in his hand again visited his daughter, but even the gift of the house would not induce her to leave. After a long argument Mrs. Grebch admitted that a gift of $10.000 in addition to the house might soothe her wounded feelings and cause her to depart.

The old gentleman refused holly and left the house with a threat of legal proceedings. He returned to his wife and told her he would begin proceedings to dispossess his daughter. Then he was informed that his wife's children refused to live in the Miller house in case it was vacated because it would never seem like home, and that they would serely set un an establishrefused to live in the Miller house in case it was vacated because it would never seem like home, and that they would surely set up an establishment of their own. However, the dispossess case is on. It was started before Judge Lauer at Jamaica yesterday and adjourned until Monday.

FIRE PIPE LINES FOR NEW YORK.

Chief Bonner, After Seeing a Test at Milwanker, Says This City Must Have Them. MILWAUKEE, Dec. 7 .- Fire Chief Hugh Bonner and Foster Crowell of New York were the guests of Chief James Foley of the Milwaukee Fire Department to-day. They came here to see the pipe lines of the Fire Department, of which Chief Foley is the inventor.

This afternoon they saw a test of the South Bay street pipe line, which is 2,900 feet long. The fireboat Cataract was attached to the pipe line, and at the other end two two-and-a-halfinch streams of water were thrown over a building 145 feet high. The two streams were thrown 350 feet horizontally.

BROOKLYN TEACHERS' SALARIES. Proposition to Increase Some of Them Not

Approved. The Brooklyn Board of Education at its meet ing last evening, received a report from the special committee on the Equalization of Salaries, recommending that the salaries of Dr Walter B. Gunnison, principal of the Erasmus High School and Prof. Charles E. Larkin of the Manual Training School be increased from $3,000 to $5,000. The report aroused much opposition and was referred back to the committee.

A propsal to increase the salary of Anthony Wahle to $1,500 and that of James Ryan to $1,300, was opposed by Commissioner Maxwell, who said a deflecency of $200,000 stare the board in the face. This also was referred.

Two players will represent each school in the tour-nament, but the question as to whether the rounds will be in sections, as in former years, was laid over until the next meeting. Christen-sen, Murphy, and Von Taube were appointed a committee to prepare a constitution and by-laws. The initiation fee will be $1. The tour-nament will begin on the first Tuesday in Feb-ruary and will continue each day, Mondays and Saturdays excepted, until the schedule is finished.

Gaulus Wins the Melbourne Cup.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Dec. 7 .- A 15 to 1 horse won the Melbourne Cup and a 50 to 1 horse was second. The day was perfect, and the crowd was the biggest on record. Gaulus and Grafter left the bunch 200 yards from home, both horses running neck and neck until by a supreme effort Gaulus pushed his nose under the wire a winner by half a neck.

W. Forcester owns both horses. They are full brothers by Goze-Industry. Gaulus is a sixyear-old chestnut horse, and Grafter a four-year-old brown gelding. Thirty horses started. The time for the two miles was 3 minutes 31 seconds.
